

“This course has had a great impact on myself as well as the children.”

“Interactive music-making is a brilliant course; it gave me practical and theoretical skills that I was able to directly implement in my setting while running weekly settings... The practical sessions are so much fun.”

‘It was a challenge for Joshua to play with other children and sit in the place for a short period of time. Since Interactive Music-Making started he is getting better and better... His dad said, “It is a miracle!”’

‘Kalvin’s mum told me she has seen a change in Kalvin at home... he is working things out before he asks his mum or brothers for help.’

"I've seen changes in my children I didn't know were possible."

‘Lily’s confidence is building... you can see it in the way she expresses herself and is using her voice more.’

‘It was funny when you want fast with the drum and cymbal, I liked it!’ (Child feedback)

‘Samrat’s confidence has grown so much. He is talking throughout the sessions and expressing himself more. He is using a lot more facial expressions. He is starting to get really involved... you can see the enjoyment.’

“Yaaaaaaaay! Music!” (Child Feedback)

"Sean used to be very quiet and lost, but now he gets involved in activities and shows interest in what other children are doing and joins in." (Parent feedback)

“Shayla is more confident in trying out a new activity...she uses much more spoken English...”

“[These interactive music-making sessions] have really improved Abigail’s turn-taking. It was a brilliant opportunity to try lots of instruments. It has improved her behaviour at pre-school.” (Parent feedback)

“Goodbye instruments! Goodbye room! See you next time!” (Fernando)
